POWDER PUFF FOOTBALL

CLASS of 2010 Pulls off a STUNNING Victory!

After an epic battle clearly noted as one for the ages, the Seniors Class of 2010 was awarded the gaudy, yet impressive, 5 foot trophy which was raised up in glor the evening of November 24, 2009 at the Annual Powder Puff Football Game after their win. A back and forth bevy of touchdowns and extra point kicks finally came down to both teams and the crowd turning on the official timer and begging the officials to change the clock back to eight seconds after time had officially run out. But after the numerous touchdowns were called back, the penalties flags thrown, and the time clock troubles subsided – the clock finally ran out on this Cinderella story to the Seniors prevailing. On the sidelines, as well as both sides of the ball, stood many stars of the game all too copious to mention. At times it became a wa of words and hustle, lasting as long as an NFL game. But in the end Sportsmanship finally prevailed and the gracious Class of 2011 Juniors accepted the close defeat with grace and dignity, greeting the Seniors at midfield for the traditional handshake and award presentation. Game MVP Rebecca Bush rose above the focused players with runs and catches unmatched by anyone else on the field. Congratulations Class of 2010!

COLOPHON

The 2010 LITTLETON COMMON ANNUAL YEARBOOK was produced with 100% of the cost funded through Book sales, advertising, fund raising, gifts, and grants from sponsors, parents, friends, and relatives of the Littleton Community. The cost of producing the yearbook is approximately $14,000. 175 books were ordered and the book sold for $65.00. Staff: Brittany Cooper, Janelle DeCamillis, Angela Miller, Lexi Scott, Samantha Wile

Adviser: Mr. Brian Tata

A special thank you to Paul Erasmus and Shelly Foster from Jostens, Terry Bleiler from Lifetouch Photography, Fernando Fernandez, and everyone that contributed in their own way to make this publication a success!
